Advisors & Partners LLP names seasoned professional Arnaud Rousse-Lacordaire Operating Partner for Luxembourg.

London – February 20th 2017 - Alternative assets specialist Advisors & Partners LLP (“A&P”) today announced that Arnaud Rousse-Lacordaire has joined the firm as Operating Partner for Luxembourg.

As an Operating Partner, Arnaud Rousse-Lacordaire will collaborate and work together with the London based A&P team, across products, services, investment opportunities and investor types.

Philippe Teilhard de Chardin, CEO of Advisors & Partners said: “We are thrilled to welcome Arnaud. On the one hand, he will develop our institutional investor base, introduce A&P advised funds, third party funds and investment solutions to local Fund of Funds, Pension Funds, Wealth Managers, Family Offices and other alternative investment professionals or qualified parties across Private Equity, Private Debt, Real Assets, Infrastructure and Hedge Fund strategies. On the other hand, Arnaud will allow Advisors & Partners to use his knowledge and expertise to analyse the local investment landscape, identify potential investment opportunities and source new transactions for A&P. Arnaud is a great addition to the A&P team who will benefit from his 25 years experience in financial services, asset management and public and private assets markets.”

Arnaud Rousse-Lacordaire said:

«This is an exciting challenge for me to join the former management team of Newedge Prime Brokerage, the prime brokerage, manager research and capital introduction specialist of former Societe Generale and Credit Agricole arm. Advisors & Partners is building a unique advisory and investment solutions business working with funds such as the Touax Investment SCA Sicav-SIF in real assets, the SGM Sustainable Growth Fund for sustainable growth and clean tech in Private Equity and the A&P Selective Real Economy Co-Lending fund project, a private debt co-lending fund providing financing solutions to corporates. Most rewardingly, Advisors & Partners offers the opportunity to source investments, balance entrepreneurs funding needs with investor’s requirements and provides solutions for fund secondaries too.»

Arnaud Rousse-Lacordaire has worked in a number of different roles for both large and small institutions, including the treasury department of chemical and pharmaceutical group Rhône Poulenc, credit insurer COFACE, capital market divisions of banks such as HSBC Paris, NatWest-Royal Bank of Scotland London and Dresdner Bank in London and Paris. After a stint as a journalist in 2005 and 2006, covering “Eco-Finance” for Paris headquartered leading pan-African news magazine Jeune Afrique, the most widely read French-language pan-African news magazine, Arnaud finally became an entrepreneur and created Cloud Nine, a capital raising business focusing on Luxembourg and working with firms such as Bellatrix AM and Harvest Convertible fund. Capital raising assignments included early financing rounds from 2011 until its IPO in June 2016 for La Française de l’Energie (LFDE:FP, formerly European Gas Ltd), a leading French SME focusing on exploration, appraisal and production of gas resources in France through the development of coal-bed methane gas resources.

Arnaud holds a diploma from Institut d'Etudes Politiques – Paris and is a Certified International Investment analyst from Societe Française des Analystes Financiers (CIAA – SFAF) – Paris.
