Advisors & Partners LLP names top executive Pierre-Edouard Coiffard Operating Partner for France.

London – March 16th 2017 - Alternative assets specialist Advisors & Partners LLP (“A&P”) today announced that Pierre-Edouard Coiffard has joined the firm as Operating Partner for France.

As an Operating Partner, Pierre-Edouard Coiffard will collaborate and work together with the London based A&P team, across products, services, investment opportunities and investor types.

Philippe Teilhard de Chardin, CEO of Advisors & Partners said: “We are delighted to welcome Pierre-Edouard to the fast expanding A&P family. We anticipate that his highly recognised skills and experience will be a great asset to the A&P organisation and its stakeholders. On the one hand, he will develop our institutional investor base, introduce A&P advised funds, third party funds and investment solutions to French institutional investors such as Fund of Funds, Pension Funds, Wealth Managers, Family Offices and other alternative investment professionals or qualified parties across Private Equity, Private Debt, Real Assets, Infrastructure and Hedge Fund strategies. On the other hand, Pierre-Edouard will use his investor and operational due diligence knowledge and expertise to analyse the local investment landscape, identify potential investment opportunities and source new transactions for A&P. Pierre-Edouard is a great addition to the A&P team and will allow our clients to draw on his 20 years experience in financial services, hedge funds, public and private assets markets.”

Pierre-Edouard Coiffard said: “I am delighted to join Advisors & Partners with such highly regarded professionals with complementary skills and expertise. The ambition is high as we thrive to serve the investors community by identifying untapped investment opportunities and by delivering innovative end-to-end solutions. I am eager to engage with the French institutional and qualified investors and listen to their needs.”

Pierre-Edouard has over 20 years of experience in asset management with a speciality in alternative investment strategies. He has 360-degree competencies, including investment management, business development & strategy, product development, designing innovative bespoke end-to-end investment solutions for investors, operations and to a lesser degree compliance. More specifically he has an extensive background in portfolio management, sourcing, analysing and monitoring managers and strategies, across all styles and asset classes, including liquid strategies (long only, hedge funds) to less liquid strategies (private equity/debt, real estate). Pierre-Edouard previously worked as Managing Director at Laven Partners and was Head of Research and CIO at Olympia Capital Management, Integrated Asset Management and Altigefi. Prior to moving into hedge funds, he was a consultant in the Finance department at Deloitte Touche & Tohmatsu. Pierre-Edouard holds an MBA from ESSEC and is a graduate engineer from Ecole Centrale de Marseille.
